The 3 Best Lipsticks to Make Your Teeth Look Whiter

by April Daniels Hussar August 17 at 5:28 PM

Recently I got a press release from celeb cosmetic dentist Dr. Kevin Sands, giving tips on how to fake a whiter smile using certain lipstick shades. Apparently, some lip colors can make your teeth look whiter, and others have the opposite effect. Intrigued, I decided to test out a bunch of colors and see how they affected the way my choppers looked.

(Now, obviously I have light hair and pretty fair skin, so results will probably vary from person to person. But I'm sure a similar concept will apply to anyone with teeth!)

Tell me what you think!

I know you picked it as one of the winners but I actually think the Aveda color made your teeth look a lot less white. Maybe it's just my monitor or something?
